

THE CONSORTIUM ON RACE, GENDER & ETHNICITY & THE MARYLAND POPULATION RESEARCH CENTER present

QUALITATIVE RESEARCH INTEREST GROUP

QUALITATIVE INQUIRY TO ACTION:
Exploring Education, Ethics and Care-giving in Research Methodology

MONDAY NOVEMBER 15, 2010

12-2pm

0124B Cole Field House

A light lunch will be served.

a panel with

Dr. Christina A. Hanhardt, AMST

Queering LGBT Movement History: Some Methodological & Ethical Considerations

Dr. Connie E. North, EDHI

Reading & Writing the World: A Study of an Inquiry-to-Action Teacher Group

Dr. Lori Simon-Rusinowitz & Kathy Ruben, Public Health

Better Training, Better Care: Identifying Training Needs of Caregivers & Older Consumers with Mental Health Diagnoses in a Consumer-directed Personal Care Program

Moderator: Dr. John Caughey, AMST

A PANEL TO DISCUSS
QUALITATIVE RESEARCH
METHODOLOGIES
IN THREE STUDIES

The QUALITATIVE RESEARCH INTEREST GROUP (QRIG) is a working interdisciplinary group of faculty & graduate students who use qualitative methodologies in their research.

Questions? Contact Beth at bdc1@umd.edu or go to www.crge.umd.edu