

2015 Guest Lecture Series:
Life Course and Obstacles to the Opportunity Structure

Presented by:

CRGE Consortium on Race,
Gender and Ethnicity

te:
uesday,
arch 26

ne:
-1:30 PM

Jamie Fader

ocation:
aryland Room,
arie Mount Hall

Inside and Out: Reentry and "Reform" of Incarcerated Urban Youth

Jamie Fader, the author of Falling Back: Incarceration and Transitions to Adulthood Among Urban Youth, focuses on the intersections of crime, justice, and social (especially racial) inequalities. She teaches in the Department of Criminal Justice at Temple University.

This event is free and open to the public but registration is required. Please RSVP here:
<http://www.crge.umd.edu/rsvp.html>

In collaboration with the Maryland Population Research Center (MPRC)