

THE CONSORTIUM ON RACE, GENDER & ETHNICITY presents

FALL 2009 GRADUATE COLLOQUIUM SERIES

INTERSECTIONALITY AS A PUBLIC POLICY TOOL

OCTOBER 8th

Multipurpose Rm, St. Mary's Hall
12-2pm

Low Confidence,
High Exposure:
African American and Latinos in the Criminal Justice System

OCTOBER 15th

Maryland Room, Marie Mount Hall
12-2pm

Brick by Brick:
A Civil Rights Story
Documentary & Discussion

NOVEMBER 19

Maryland Room, Marie Mount Hall
12-2pm

Critical Condition:
Health Care Policy
in the United States

DECEMBER 10

Maryland Room, Marie Mount Hall
12-2pm

New Terrains of Intersectionality:
Racial Theories,
Disability, &
Social Movements

A light lunch is served. CRGE's Colloquium is designed specifically for graduate students, faculty & staff interested in the intersections of race, gender, ethnicity and other dimensions of inequality. The colloquium meets monthly on Thursdays to create interdisciplinary ties among graduate students and faculty interested in questions surrounding the construction and perpetuation of categories of social difference. Questions? Contact Beth Douthirt-Cohen at bdc1@umd.edu

CO-SPONSORED BY THE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY